Resolution (17) 2024 – Utility Truck

President Pro-Tem Broderick opened the review meeting with the Resolution for the utility truck.

Need to decide if they want the truck with or without a light bar. Discussion took place. It was decided to proceed with the truck including the light bar. The difference between the cost of the truck and what the insurance covered was $20,332.00. These funds will come from the electric fund.

Resolution (18) 2024 – Sale of vehicle to another community

President Pro-Tem asked if there were any questions. None were heard.

Mr. Cassidy stated we would like to sell the vehicles to another entity. We should know something early next week.

Motion A – Mosquito Control program

President Pro-Tem Broderick stated this is a housekeeping matter. Mayor Fryman called them last week and they can set out more traps to test the various areas.

No questions were heard.

Motion B – Confirmation of 2024 pool employees

Broderick stated we have a salary range, pay is based on experience.

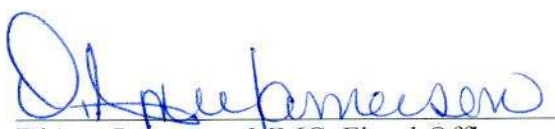

There are currently five employees. We are waiting on two more applications.

Everyone is eager and everything looks good.

Burton stated he would like to make sure we have enough people.

No questions or comments were heard.

Committee adjourned at 6:53pm

DiAnn Jamerson, MMC, Fiscal Officer
